Impact of the Beaver County Fair was immediate and widespread in the rural setting of 5,336 residents. The Beaver County Extension office provided free hotdogs for 760 people in the county. Of the 760 that came to the hotdog feed 20% were of Hispanic origin. There were 1,671 exhibits entered in the county fair with 438 being 4-H exhibits. Seven hundred and sixty county residents had face to face contact with Beaver County Extension personnel. County Residents had the opportunity to view the exhibits in 4-H, HCE, and open classes for entry ideas for next year’s participation.

PARTICIPANT RESULTS:
- YOUTH entered 438 4-H exhibits in the fair.
- 1,671 total exhibits entered in fair.
- 760 youth and adults benefited from the OSU Extension sponsored hotdog feed.
