

OKLAHOMA ASSOCIATION FOR HOME AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION
Kay County

Kay County's OHCE is one component of Oklahoma State University's Cooperative Extension Service Family and Consumer Science program.

There are four groups organized in Kay County. Some meet during the day, others at night. A mailbox membership is also available for those who cannot meet with a group. Membership is open to any person regardless of age, race, color, creed, gender, disability, religion, national origin or status as a veteran.

The purpose of this organization is adult education and community service. This program, as well as others sponsored by the OSU Cooperative Extension Service, is a cooperative effort between Oklahoma State University, County Commissioners, and USDA.
